DAILY JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS.

First Day.

Hillsboro, Ohio, Wednesday, September 3, 1884.

Opening Services.—The Thirty-third Annual Session of the Cincinnati Conference began in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Hillsboro, Ohio, on Wednesday, September 3, 1884.

At 9 o'clock A. M., the President, Bishop S. M. Merrill, D. D., called the Conference to order.

He read as Scripture lessons Isaiah, XLth Chapter, and Second Corinthians, VIth Chapter, and announced the 811th hymn, commencing—which was heartily sung by the Conference.

“High on his everlasting throne
The King of heaven his work surveys,”

The Lord's Supper.—Bishop Walden, R. S. Rust, M. P. Gaddis, A. Lowrey, and M. Dustin were invited within the chancel, after which the elements were consecrated by Bishop Merrill, and the sacrament of the Lord's-supper was administered to these brethren and to the large number of ministers and laity in attendance.

After using the closing ritual the Bishop led in prayer for God's blessing on the Conference and the Church at large.

Roll Call.—The roll of the Conference was called by D. J. Starr, the Secretary of the last session, and one hundred and thirty-three members answered to their names.

Brethren Deceased.—David Kemper, Charles Ferguson, Nimrod McDonald, and W. M. Boyer were reported as having died during the past year.

Secretaries Elected.—Conference ordered a ballot for the election of Secretary, and Frank G. Mitchell, having received a majority of all the votes cast, was declared elected. The privilege of nominating his assistants having been accorded him, he named and the Conference elected the following: D. W. Clark, D. L. Aultman, G. L. Travis, S. O. Royal, G. M. Hammell, D. C. Ridgway, and H. C. Weakley. S. O. Royal was designated as Statistical Secretary, with G. M. Hammell and D. C. Ridgway as his assistants, and H. C. Weakley was given charge of railroad certificates.

Thanks to Former Secretary.—The Conference, by a rising vote of thanks, expressed its appreciation of the faithful service of Brother Starr during the past twenty-two years in various secretarial duties.

Time of Sessions.—On motion Conference decided to meet at half-past eight o'clock A. M., and adjourn at 12 o'clock M., and to spend the first half hour of each session in devotional exercises.

Standing Committees.—The Secretary read the list of the Standing Committees nominated last year for this session, and, after some changes, the Committees were constituted as follows:

REPORT ON STATISTICS.

1. THE Committee would call the attention of this Conference to the following action of the late General Conference:

"Each Annual Conference shall require every preacher in charge to present his statistical report, complete, correct, and plainly written, on the first day of the conference session.

"At the opening of the second day's session the presiding Bishop shall call upon the statistical Secretary to read the names of all charges not reported and of all imperfectly or incorrectly reported. This call and announcement shall be made at the beginning of each day's session till every charge is correctly reported.

"All collections and other moneys must be reported in even dollars."

2. The Committee also recommend that all items on the blanks be filled either with an amount or a cipher that they may know that the report is complete.

3. The improvement in accuracy and in reporting even dollars by about two-thirds of the charges merits commendation.

J. F. CONREY, *Treasurer.REPORT ON EDUCATION.*The Ohio Wesleyan University.

THIS institution of learning continues to increase in influence and reputation. The attendance during the past year was greater than during any previous year of its history; 791 names were on its roll, with an average by terms in actual attendance of 625. These students come from twenty-five States and foreign countries and from eighty-one counties in Ohio. This is a remarkable attendance when we remember that the institution has no professional schools.

No other institution of learning under the auspices of our Church—at least in its collegiate and accademic departments—can approach such a showing as this. The graduating class this year was the largest ever graduated in its history, numbering sixty-nine.

Not only does the Ohio Wesleyan University teach science, philosophy, and literature, imparting to the mind a high culture, but it is as careful to impress on the heart the great lessons of morality and religion. Prayer-meetings are of unusual interest, and great revivals are and have been from its origin of frequent occurrence.

The scholarship of the University is such as entitles it to rank among the foremost institutions of learning East and West. The Visitors and Examiners from this Conference report, after the most careful attention, great thoroughness and conscientiousness in the examinations, and in the management of the University in every particular. Great credit is due to its able and earnest President for all these results, as well as to his faithful colaborers.

Nine years ago the Conference proposed to raise the sum of thirty thousand dollars for the endowment of a conference professorship in the Ohio Wesleyan University. For various reasons—chiefly, perhaps, the indebtedness on the Cincinnati Wesleyan College, and the want of concentration in its endeavor—only a small part of that sum has been secured. We can not consent to even seem to be wanting in loyalty and devotion to this noble institution which is doing so great a work for the Church, whose President and Vice-president, together with honored graduates, are members of this Conference; and now that the hindrances to united effort are likely soon to be removed, the time seems to have fully come for a vigorous movement in behalf of our honored institution. The conference endowment ought to be at once completed, and a large additional amount contributed, with which to prosecute its much needed work. In view of these facts, and the importance of seizing upon the present auspicious occasion in celebrating the centennial year, therefore,

Resolved, 1. That a Centennial Educational Committee be appointed, consisting of the presiding elders, together with two preachers and three laymen from each district. We recommend that the following be appointed as members of that Committee:

East Cincinnati: D. J. Starr, I. W. Joyce, Wm. Runyan, J. W. Dale, W. B. Davis, Jas. M. Decamp.

West Cincinnati: W. L. Hypes, B. F. Dimmick, Jas. Murray, Jno. B. Hart, Thos. Fox, G. B. Johnston.

Dayton: T. S. Cowden, E. T. Wells, J. N. Irvin, H. Elliott, S. N. Brown, Abel Hoover.

Springfield: A. N. Spahr, T. H. Pearne, A. B. Leonard, Judge Warnock, P. P. Mast, W. J. White.

Hillsboro: J. Pearson, C. W. Ketcham, J. F. Loyd, M. Redkey, H. S. Scarborough, A. Haines.

Ripley: S. B. Smith, F. M. Clemans, H. D. Rice, Jas. McMath, W. G. Hall, Jas. Moore.

2. That a centennial convention be held in each Conference district at as early a date as possible, at which every pastor of the district and as many laymen as possible should be present, to awaken enthusiasm and to make arrangements for the proper celebration of the centennial throughout the district.

3. That a centennial day be observed in each pastoral charge of the Conference, on which day the people shall be urged to make a thankoffering to God. The day may be such as is most convenient for each charge, but should, if possible, be before the beginning of the new year; special services being held on such day, morning and evening, and in the Sunday-school.

4. That this most marked event in our history ought to be signalized by a memorial gift from every adherent of the Church. To this end every pastor should seek both by personal and public appeals to reach the entire congregation, old and young, and secure, if possible, a centennial gift from every person connected with the Church, the congregation, and the Sabbath-school.

5. That all centennial offerings within the bounds of our Conference, with the names of the donors, the amounts contributed by each, and the object of the gift, be published in full in our annual Minutes for 1885, and also that weekly reports of such contributions be published in the Western Christian Advocate; and to carry out these provisions each pastor is requested to keep a complete record of all centenary contributions made on his charge, and report the same as indicated above.

6. That cards for taking the collections be furnished each pastor, and that, if it be found practicable, a suitable certificate be furnished to each contributor, stating the fact and the amount of the contribution.

7. That in accordance with the advice of the Bishops, and the action of the General Conference, the cause of education be made the principal object of our centennial offering; but, as the Conference at its last session directed, those who prefer may contribute to the liquidation of debts on churches and parsonages, the Preachers' Relief Society of our Conference, and our Southern educational work.

8. That it is the judgment of this Conference that the Ohio Wesleyan University should receive the larger portion of the centennial gifts of this Conference; and we earnestly commend it to the liberal contributions of our members and direct that all unspecified donations be appropriated to the University.

9. That negotiable notes bearing interest at six per cent and running, if desired, four years, be prepared, and those who prefer may make their contributions in part or in full in this way.

10. That the contributions recently made and others that may be added to cancel the indebtedness on the Cincinnati Wesleyan College, to the amount of $80,000, be duly recognized as centennial offerings, and that contributions made for Hillsboro and other colleges under the patronage of the Conference be also so recognized.

11. That, in view of the shortness of the time, and the necessity of immediate action, a permanent organization should be effected at once in order to see that these provisions are vigorously carried out; and we recommend that C. H. Payne be President of the organization, L. D. McCabe, Secretary, and Wm. Runyan, Treasurer, and that these brethren, together with J. F. Chalfant and P. P. Mast, constitute the Executive Committee.

12. That Rev. Wm. Runyan be made Treasurer of the Conference Centennial Funds, and that all our ministers forward these contributions to him, to be placed by him in the hands of the proper officers and receipts to be taken for the same.

13. That the Executive Committee ordered in this report be authorized, if they think best, to employ a Centennial Secretary to devote his time for the coming year to furthering the objects proposed.

14. That in case a Centennial Secretary be appointed, his salary shall be fixed by the Centennial Committee already ordered in this Report, and that such salary, together with all necessary actual expenses, be paid from the Conference Centennial Funds; the several objects of donations paying their pro rata share of the expense, in proportion to the amount received by each.

We herewith submit the financial exhibit of the Ohio Wesleyan University, taken from the report of the Auditor, June 15, 1884.

W. G. WILLIAMS, Secretary of the Board.

We recommend also the following :

Resolved, 1. That John R. Wright, Esq., be re-elected by this Conference as Trustee of the University, for the term of five years, from June 22, 1885.

2. That the Bishop be requested to re-appoint the Rev. C. H. Payne, D. D., LL. D., to the Presidency of the University, and the Rev. L. D. McCabe, D. D., LL. D., to the Chair of Philosophy.

3. That the Conference appoint Revs. A. Bowers and B. F. Dimmick, Visitors and Examiners for the coming year.

Xenia College.

The situation of this institution is healthful and convenient. The buildings are surrounded with a finely wooded campus. Marked improvements have been made both without and within. The property is valued at $10,000. The debt amounts to $3,500. The income is steadily increasing.

The Board of Trustees is constituted as follow : Tobias Drees, President; Rev. W. G. Moorehead, D. D., Vice-president; W. F. Trader, Secretary; J. H. Cooper, Treasurer; Rev. D. J. Starr, D. D., Hon. M. D. Gatch, Samuel Newton, W. H. DeMotte, LL. D., Rev. Wm. Runyan, D. D.

The courses of study include a Ladies' Literary and University Preparatory. The excellent faculty has recently received important additions. Under the efficient presidency of Rev. Dr. W. H. DeMotte the institution has been doing well during the past year.

We recommend the appointment of the pastors of the Methodist Episcopal Churches in Xenia as Visitors and Examiners for the ensuing year.

Contrary to the action of this Conference last year, we learn indirectly that the debt on the institution has been increased $150.00 during the last year, and about $1,300.00 within a few years, the estimated value of the property not increasing.

Hillsboro Female College.

This honored school has a remarkably healthful location, and those seeking the privileges of a good education do well to consider this fact. The past year has been a successful one for the institution, under the efficient management of Rev. J. F. Loyd. The Visiting Committee report that "the examinations were thorough, impartial and satisfactory, indicating faithful work on the part of instructors and scholars; the commencement exercises were of a high order, unique, and exceedingly interesting to all present. We commend heartily the institution to all young ladies seeking an education.

We recommend that the following persons be elected a Board of Trustees: Revs. J. Pearson, C. W. Ketcham, D. D., J. P. Porter, and S. W. Edmiston; J. M. Hiestand, J. L. West, Asa Haines and Harden Rhoads. We recommend as Visitors Revs. J. Pearson, C. W. Ketcham, D. D., and J. P. Porter.

A claim was presented to the Committee on Education by Judge Thompson of about seventeen hundred dollars, relating to a former transaction in connection with the Hillsboro College. From the best sources of information within our reach that entire obligation, real or supposed, was satisfied, so far as the Conference is concerned, several years ago, by a generous contribution from the Conference; we understand that five thousand, four hundred dollars have been paid to Mr. Thompson altogether. If any subscriptions to Mr. Thompson then made are not paid, Mr. Thompson may have a right to ask payment of the individuals, but not of the Conference.

Springfield Female College and High School.

We recommend the Conference to place the case of the Springfield property in the hands of Jas. F. Chalfant, with power to use conciliatory measures, and if need be to take all legal steps necessary to secure the interests of the Cincinnati Conference and of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the premises and funds according to the intent of the original donors.

We would recommend that the following persons be elected a Board of Trustees: Wm. Young, A. B. Leonard, J. F. Marlay, J. F. Chalfant, Wm. Runyan, H. Tuckley, W. C. Frye, W. J. White, J. M. Deardorff, P. P. Mast, C. C. Taylor, Sam'l Hitt, E. T. Wells, R. H. Rust, J. N. Irvin, S. D. Clayton, C. H. Schaeffer, J. L. Berry, H. S. Showers.

Resolved, That the Trustees be instructed not to allow any persons to pay over the proceeds of the McFadden fund to the support of the present school.

Cincinnati Wesleyan College.

We are glad to hear that the past year has been one of prosperity with this institution. The graduating class numbered thirteen young ladies. The religious interest was good throughout the year; a number of the young ladies were converted.

The outlook for next year is encouraging. Most of the rooms are now engaged; and if the accommodations could be enlarged, the number of students could be greatly increased.

Most of the seventy thousand dollars secured on subscription for the relief of the institution from its financial embarrassments, has been paid.

Resolved, 1. That we recognize the $80,000 raised for the complete relief of the Cincinnati Wesleyan College as a part of our Centennial offerings.

2. We recommend Jas. Murray, W. L. Hypes, and John J. Reed, as Visitors for the ensuing year.

Theological Schools.

While we insist that the literary should precede the theological training, we are more and more convinced of the great value of Theological Schools; and that, in addition to the most thorough training in all departments of theological learning, special and personal attention ought to be given to the deep spiritual culture of the students.

In view of the action of the last General Conference, we would advise young men, feeling called of God to preach, to seek classical and theological education in some one of our institutions.

We affectionately advise all our probationary members who have not had advantages of special training in our higher institutions of learning, to seek those advantages now, as the General Conference has authorized the Bishop to give them a nominal appointment for the further prosecution of their studies without changing their relation.

We desire to call attention to the following important particulars:

1. Duly qualified candidates for the ministry can enjoy in our theological schools the best of Biblical and theological training without paying therefor any fee whatsoever.

2. They can enjoy without charge a desirable furnished room.

3. Good board is supplied for about one hundred dollars a year, and in special cases even this small sum may be provided by loans from various sources.

Boston School of Theology, Drew Theological Seminary, and Garrett Biblical Institute are all eminently worthy of patronage.

We recommend that Rev. H. B. Ridgaway, D. D., be reappointed to the chair of Historical Theology in Garrett Biblical Institute.

We recommend that Rev. R. H. Rust, D. D., and Rev. J. F. Marlay, D. D., be appointed Visitors for the ensuing year to Garrett Biblical Institute; that Rev. A. Lowrey, D. D., and Rev. Wm. N. Brodbeck be appointed Visitors to Drew Theological Seminary; and that Rev. John A. Story, Rev. John N. Irvin, and Rev. A. Lowrey, D. D., be appointed Visitors to Boston School of Theology.

Conference Educational Society.

We recommend as officers for the ensuing year of the Conference Educational Society:

C. H. Payne, D. D., LL. D., President.

J. F. Loyd, I. W. Joyce, E. T. Wells, Vice-presidents.

D. J. Starr, Secretary.

James F. Chalfant, Treasurer.

Managers—John W. Dale, Theo. F. Spear, George N. Friend, Dr. Wm. K. Brown, C. W. Ketcham and W. L. Hypes.

Resolved, That in considering all applications for aid the officers be instructed to give preference to the applications of persons known to be preparing for the ministry or for mission work from within the bounds of our own Conference, and that they make this apportionment according to the number of worthy applicants in the institution.

L. D. McCABE, Chairman.

J. N. IRVIN, Secretary.

Report of the Educational Society of the Cincinnati Conference.

DEAR BRETHREN.—On behalf of your Society we beg to report that we have not been indifferent to the great work committed to our care during the past year. Much has been done by correspondence.

By misdirection, the funds committed to our use to assist worthy students within our own Conference preparing for missionary and ministerial work, found their way into the General Treasury at New York. The amount was near $600. If this had been at our disposal we could have done much more than we have now done. Of this $600 we have had returned to us from the treasury at New York—about $237. The exact amount is on the books of our Treasurer, and also on the books of Cranston & Stowe. With the small sum in our hands we have assisted two young men preparing for the ministry from our own charges—at Delaware, and have undertaken to help three worthy young ladies preparing for missionary work, now attending the Hillsboro College. This money is loaned on notes payable when the students may be able to refund it. We are convinced that this good work is well begun, and that if continued, much may be done by our Conference Educational Society, for the good of the Church. We recommend, therefore, that Conference adhere to its plan of directing educational funds—except money raised on Children's Day—to be paid into our Conference Educational Society Treasury for use in this direction.

C. H. PAYNE, President.

D. J. STARR, Secretary.

JAMES MURRAY, Receiver.

REPORT ON THE FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

THE office of the Freedmen's Aid Society is within the bounds of the Cincinnati Conference. The veteran Secretary, Rev. Dr. Rust, is an honored member of this body. For several years past this Conference has steadily and liberally contributed to the funds of the Freedmen's Aid Society. For the last seven years creditable zeal has been shown in the amounts of the yearly offerings for this cause and in the number of the charges contributing. These sums and the per member averages are as follows, viz.:

In 1877, \$2,162, or $5\frac{1}{2}$ cents per member.
 " 1878, $3,007, or 8 " " "
 " 1879, less \$1,700 bequest, \$2,148, or $5\frac{1}{2}$ cents per member.
 " 1880, less bequest, $500, $1,565, or 4 " " "
 " 1881, $2,302, or 6 cents per member.
 " 1882, less bequest of \$1,050, \$2,167, or $5\frac{1}{2}$ cents per member.
 " 1883, $3,463, or 9 cents per member.

This last named sum is within $137 of the amount apportioned.

In the number of charges contributing, there is marked improvement.

In 1878, 23 charges reported no collections for Freedmen.
 " 1879, 19 " " " " "
 " 1880, 29 " " " " "
 " 1881, 24 " " " " "
 " 1882, 10 " " " " "
 " 1883, 5 " " " " "

Practically there are no non-reporting charges among us. The few charges failing to report are immature or supply charges. The Treasurer's report for this year will show little if any falling off, even though the year has been one of great financial strain.

Only two conferences in the connection exceeded ours in collections for the Freedmen in 1883. The Rock River, \$4,342, or $16\frac{1}{2}$ cents per member. The Pittsburg, \$3,633. Of this last sum about \$1,300 was a bequest or a special gift, making the average $7\frac{3}{4}$ cents per member. Strictly, then, only one conference in the whole Church exceeds this in Freedmen's Aid Society offerings. In the relative number of contributing charges this Conference exceeds the Rock River and the Pittsburg. In the Rock River Conference, of 211 charges, 177, or 84 per cent, reported collections. In the Pittsburg, of 159 charges, 96, or 64 per cent, reported collections. In the Cincinnati Conference, of 144 charges, 139 charges, or 99 per cent, reported collections.

Thus, where the Society is best known and its claims are most clearly understood, it shares and receives the fullest confidence and the steadiest and most liberal support.

The largest sums, however, while beyond those of some other conferences, are yet far below the needs and the merits of this great cause. The average per member of this Conference ought to be exceeded by us and fully equaled in all the other conferences. If the general average equaled that of the Rock River Conference, the Freedmen's Aid Society would annually receive $289,000; a sum none too large for the high objects proposed. Our aim should be a collection from every charge and the apportionment fully met.

The action of the late General Conference is well worthy of our careful attention. After a thorough examination of its doings, the following results were reached :

“ Resolved, That we fully indorse the administration of the Freedmen’s Aid Society during the past quadrennium.”

It is made the duty of each pastor to present the claims of this cause once a year, in his congregation and to collect the amounts apportioned to his charge. He is also required to state plainly, in presenting the claims of this Society, that the educational work of the Society is among both white and colored people.

The General Conference recites at length the remarkable results achieved through the Freedmen’s Aid Society, in the increase of members, and of Church and school property in the South. The following resolutions were adopted :

“ Resolved, 1. That as a General Conference, we render thanks to God for the success that has attended the work of our Church in the Southern States, by which it has come to be permanently planted in every State in that section, so that we are now, in the matter of occupation, as well as administration, a National Church.

“ Resolved, 2. That we extend cordial greetings and benedictions to all our people, our teachers, and pastors in the Southern States, and rejoice with them in their success, and sympathize with them in their labors; and we pledge to them, in behalf of the whole Church, the largest possible co-operation and help in every good word and work.”

The General Conference also recommended “that an appeal be made to the whole Church for half a million of dollars as a centennial offering to the great work of the Freedmen’s Aid Society.”

This action places this object in the rank of connectional objects, and shows how high this cause stands in the judgment of the whole Church.

Half a million of dollars would be about twenty-nine cents per member; but this should be increased a few cents to allow for frontier, mission, and feeble parts.

This Conference will gladly endeavor to raise its share towards the noble object proposed.

We recommend the adoption of the following :

Resolved, 1. That we have a profound conviction of the great and growing importance of the Freedmen’s Aid Society to the extension of Christ’s Kingdom and of Christian civilization; and also, and especially to our national peace, unity, safety, and welfare.

Resolved, 2. That we thankfully recognize the great and good work done by this Society in uplifting and blessing six millions of Freedmen and more than half as many white people in the South.

Resolved, 3. That we are in full accord with the noble purpose of this Society to assist in the education of the whites in the South.

Resolved, 4. That we will gladly endeavor to raise our part of the half million of dollars proposed by the General Conference as a centennial offering, for the great work of the Freedmen’s Aid Society.

Resolved, 5. That the presiding elders shall apportion this amount among the several charges according to numbers and ability, and that we pledge ourselves to use faithful diligence to raise our quota during the coming conference year.

REPORT ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

THE work which the Church Extension Society has been doing since its organization in 1864 is of such a character as to commend itself to the confidence of the entire Church. About 4,550 churches have received aid from the funds of this Society, and in many cases the assistance thus given was the primary inspiration to their being built. And, so far from crippling or retarding the work of the parent Missionary Society, not far from 1,400,000 people have the Gospel preached to them in these churches who are called upon to contribute to the great Missionary cause. The song, "We're Building Two a Day," means that many more churches a day to help swell the contributions of the Missionary Society to a million dollars annually.

The Church Extension Society is promoting the thorough organization of strong churches in our own land, particularly on the frontier, and is thus increasing the aggregate power of the Church for good, and hastening on the conquest of this world for Christ.

In these churches thus aided not less than 650,000 Sabbath-school scholars are being taught the Word of God.

The "Loan Fund" now amounts to $509,000, and ought to be speedily swelled to double that sum. "Of this Loan Fund," says Dr. Kynett, "$326,000 have been returned to the treasury and reloaned to Churches." Of the $4,000 apportioned to this Conference, $2,310 were raised last year, and there is a slight falling off in the collections this year.

We submit for your readoption the resolutions of last year.

Resolved, 1. That the apportionment of $4,000 to this Conference is a reasonable one.

Resolved, 2. That every dollar of this apportionment ought to be paid.

Resolved, 3. That we will faithfully try the excellent methods directed by our Discipline, and use all possible diligence to raise the whole amount asked of us.

J. W. CASSATT, Chairman.

J. S. PUMPHREY, Secretary.

REPORT ON THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL CAUSE.

THE prime object of Sunday-school work should be to secure the salvation of the members thereof. Let the motto be "every soul for Jesus."

With the Bible as the text-book, see that each one who reads is provided with a copy. Provide as teachers, men and women of practical piety and with profound convictions as to the importance of their work; cultivate a spirit of benevolence by affording opportunities for contributing to the benevolences of the Church, making a plain statement as to each object for which a contribution is solicited.

If "the children of light" are just as wise as "the children of this world" they will get trained teachers by the same means by which the world gets them, namely, by training them; hence encourage normal institutes; if they can not be held in each charge, several contiguous charges may unite for holding quarterly or semi-annual institutes. By all means hold for each school, a weekly teachers' meeting for the investigation of the lesson for the next Sunday.

Our own Lesson Helps should be used. In all the range of modern Sunday-school aids to the comprehension of the lessons, the Sunday-School Journal for Teachers and Young People has the pre-eminence. If the order of exercises for opening the school as given in the Journal is followed, the school will be taught the Lord's Prayer, the Ten Commandments, the Apostles' Creed, and some of the sublimest of the Psalms. A faithful pastor should find or make opportunity to use the Catechism in the school, if it is but one question per week.

We recommend carefully selected libraries, to take the place of the abundant pernicious and unwholesome literature of our times. We cordially commend the movement, which proposes to put one new book a week at small cost into the reading matter of our schools.

We think our Sunday-schools would do more efficient work for missions, swelling the contributions, deepening the love and increasing the missionary intelligence, if there was in each school a missionary society distinct from the organization of the school.

In order to have information upon which a well digested report may be prepared in the future, we respectfully request each preacher in charge to answer the following questions, numbering the answers to correspond with the questions and sending them by postal card to the first-named member of the Committee on Sunday-school Cause for 1885:

1. What publications do you use in your Sunday-school?
 - a. How many?
 - b. At what expense?
2. Have you a Sunday-school Missionary Society separately organized?
3. Do you hold teachers' meetings weekly, for the preparation of the lesson?
4. Do you use the Church Catechism in the school.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

THE American Bible Society has passed another year in the prosecution of the great work assigned it in the providence of God, namely, to spread the knowledge of the Sacred Scriptures throughout all lands. We congratulate the Society upon the work it has done in the past. It has been, and is, the helpmeet of our Churches and Sunday-schools, and has stood side by side with all evangelical missions in foreign lands. We are glad to know that our Churches have reciprocated, in some measure the liberality of the Society, and we pledge our earnest prayers and co-operation for its increased usefulness in the future.

REPORT ON PUBLIC MORALS.

THE Committee on Public Morals submit the following report:

The subject presented for our consideration is vitally connected with the prosperity of the Church and the nation. It has a wide range of application. A rightly educated public conscience is of prime importance to every interest of society. There are many evidences that the moral sense of the people is sadly defective. The wide-spread desecration of the Sabbath, the demoralizing views of the marriage relation and the family which so largely obtain, the continued existence, without abatement, of that burning disgrace of the nation, Mormonism, the ruinous rule of the liquor despotism, with by far too much aid and comfort from public opinion and the civil law, bribery and fraud at elections, the want of commercial integrity, seen not only in defalcations and frauds and forgeries, but in more common, yet thoroughly dishonest, business practices, in which we are fearful that men sustaining intimate relations with the Church are sometimes involved. These and many other similar evils indicate too plainly the great work yet to be done.

One fruitful cause of this depraved condition of morals, we are convinced, may be found in the demoralizing class of reading which constitutes almost the entire mental and moral pabulum of a large portion of community. No duty is more imperative than that parent and pastor should use increased diligence in guarding the family by excluding all pernicious literature and providing pure and healthful reading for every family of the Church. And in this connection it becomes necessary to utter strong and unequivocal words of condemnation against the most false and fatal standard of morals ever taught to men, which is to-day extensively advocated. Upon this vital subject we desire to speak in no uncertain tones, and wish to be distinctly understood. The Cincinnati Annual Conference, as a body of Christian ministers, has nothing to do with mere party politics. We religiously abstain from interfering with ordinary political issues, concerning which good men may and do entertain widely differing opinions. We are not, in our ministerial capacity, concerned with the simple question as to which of the political parties shall be in the ascendancy; but we are deeply concerned with the grave question of public morals, as that question affects every interest which it is our sacred duty to cherish, and we deem it a part of our legitimate work to guard the morals of our people and to lift up our warning voice against all infractions of morality and all false ethical teachings. We are deeply grieved and humiliated at the attitude of men of high positions and great influence, and of several periodicals hitherto regarded as reputable, now deliberately announcing doctrines contrary to the teachings of the Bible, abhorrent to moral sense, and perilous to every interest of the nation. The alarming doctrine is boldly taught that "the chastity or unchastity of public men of national repute, and nominated for office before the people of the whole country, is not a proper subject of discussion," and that private character does not affect one's fitness for high public position, and should not influence the suffrages of conscientious patriots. We shudder at the consequences of having such principles invade our homes. When distinguished men—both the living and the dead—are in the same sentence stigmatized as profligates and lauded as patriots and statesmen, the inevitable effect is to lead our young men to regard a pure character and a spotless life as matters of only secondary consideration. That such "evil fruit" from this "corrupt tree" has already appeared we are too well assured to doubt. By the public teaching of such sentiments the sanctity of the family is invaded, the virtue of our children is imperiled, the purity of our public men is endangered, the morals of every community are poisoned, the honor of the whole American people is assailed, the very safety and perpetuity of the nation are involved. In view of these perils, therefore,

Resolved, 1. That it is the solemn judgment of this Conference of Christian ministers that such moral and political teaching is an intellectual and moral disgrace—a disgrace to our nation, our age, and our civilization, and that, unrebuked, it must necessarily work a demoralization to the public conscience, to the youth of this generation, and to our great republic, which no language can describe and no mind fully conceive.

Resolved, 2. That we respectfully urge the religious and patriotic press, the various religious bodies of whatever denomination, and all lovers of pure morals, without respect to party affiliations, to unite in honest Christian effort to defend the homes and to guard the morals of our land by discountenancing all immorality and personal impurity, whether of private or public character, in high or low station, within or without the political party of their choice.

REPORT ON MORMON POLYGAMY.

WE reaffirm the position taken by the Conference on this subject at the last session, "that Mormonism threatens the morality, peace, virtue, and integrity of the State;" and that a solemn and imperative obligation rests upon all Churches and citizens to labor vigorously and incessantly to remove this cancer from the social and political body.

We heartily approve the Edmunds' bill, and ask the Congress of the United States so to supplement its provisions as to prevent the evasions which now take place.

We would recommend, if it be necessary, that the franchise be entirely taken from the people of the Territory, and that its government be strictly relegated to the authorities at Washington, and enforced by military discipline.

We are encouraged by the action of European governments—such as the Austrian—which are suppressing the proselytism of Mormon emissaries within their jurisdictions; and we recommend that our government through the foreign office co-operate with all such efforts, and that the strictest surveillance be exercised over immigrants brought to our shores by these emissaries.

We would further recommend the organization of a voluntary National Anti-Mormon Society, with State and territorial subsidiaries, with the avowed and steadfast purpose of agitation, public, private, and persistent, until this high crime is extirpated.

We would still further recommend that a committee of three from this Conference, consisting of A. Lowrey, W. L. Hypes, and H. B. Ridgaway, be appointed, who shall co-operate with other workers in all measures, such as waiting upon the members of Congress, etc., in promoting this movement.

REPORT ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

AFTER a careful consideration of the subject referred to us, and being deeply impressed with the sacredness thereof as a day set apart for all time, not as a mere civil institution, but for purposes of rest and religious culture by a direct appointment of God, we beg leave to report, and indorse as our own the admirable and comprehensively worded utterance upon this subject, which was adopted by our last General Conference in the language following:

"Your committee beg leave to report that we view with grave apprehension the growing disregard throughout the land of the Christian Sabbath, and the evidently increasing laxity of conscience among our people respecting the sacredness of the day. 'If the foundations be destroyed what can the righteous do?' A proper recognition of the sanctity of the Holy Sabbath is one of the chief corner-stones in the foundations of the Church and of our civilization. If this be removed by the persistent efforts of those who seek to destroy it, or lose in any sense its sacred character through laxity of conscience among Christians, every thing held as sacred in both Church and State can not but be disastrously affected.

"Furthermore, we recognize as an infraction of both moral and civil law, the pursuit of ordinary business as labor upon the sabbath day, and as being destructive of the best interests of the individual, the home, and of society; therefore,

"Resolved, 1. That we deplore the low state of moral sentiment which permits, almost without rebuke, certain elements of community to live in violation of this wholesome law by keeping open ordinary places of business, drinking saloons, running railroad trains, and engaging in Sunday picnics.

"Resolved, 2. That we regard all unnecessary travel on the Sabbath, the buying or reading of Sunday papers, and all forms of pleasure-taking on that day, as being in violation of the Divine injunction, 'Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy.'

"Resolved, 3. That we will faithfully employ all lawful measures to lead our people everywhere to higher appreciation of the Sabbath as the great law of God, and conservative of moral and civil government."

REPORT ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

YOUR Committee beg leave to present the following report:

We rejoice in the growing prosperity of the publishing interests of our Church. The array of facts and figures presented to the Conference on the first day of its session by the Rev. Dr. Stowe was most interesting and suggestive.

We have reason to make devout acknowledgment to God for the great and noble work that Methodism has done in furnishing Christian literature to the Church and people. But we fear that such reading has not the place in our homes to-day that it deserves. The daily paper—the Sunday paper—with their false standards of morality, their secularizing and demoralizing tendencies, the novel, the trifling or pernicious juvenile book and paper—these form too large a part of the reading of the youth, and of the families of the land. The influence of such literature upon the intellectual, the moral, and the Christian life is positively harmful, and the only hope of counteracting it lies in a more earnest and determined effort to introduce better books and papers in its place. We believe there is large room for such improvement. We are gratified to learn that the Western Christian Advocate has a circulation of 25,000 copies, but with a territory containing 300,000 Methodists, this excellent paper ought to and might have a list of 50,000 subscribers.

Many of our Sunday-schools have no libraries in which the children can find a supply of healthful reading. Church libraries are rarely found, and very little is done in many communities to promote a taste for the best reading.

In this connection we thoroughly indorse the action of the last General Conference in proposing to furnish, each week, one new book of excellent quality for our Sunday-school libraries.

The Conference parts with the outgoing editor of the Western Christian Advocate, Rev. F. S. Hoyt, D. D., with high appreciation of him as a man, a Christian, and a scholar, and gratefully recognizes his fidelity and ability in giving to the Church during the long term of his service a pre-eminently good family paper.

We congratulate the Rev. J. H. Bayliss, D. D., a member of our own Conference, on his election to the editorship of the Western Christian Advocate.

We heartily commend his vigorous and outspoken utterances, and pledge him our cordial support and co-operation.

We desire to record our high esteem for and appreciation of the faithful and scholarly labor of Rev. D. D. Whedon, D. D., during his long and eminently successful career as editor of the Methodist Quarterly Review, and the high standing the Review has attained during his management. We welcome Rev. Daniel Curry, D. D., to this editorial chair, and believe him in every way capable of carrying forward the Review to still greater success.

The relationship which our Conference sustains to our publishing house demands some attention. We find that some members of our Conference have been indebted to the Book Concern, and are not making prompt payment of their accounts, and do not show a disposition to meet these obligations. We, therefore, submit that for the honor of the Conference some adequate action should be taken for the collection of these accounts. We have yet to hear of a single instance in which such action, either disciplinary or legal, has been resorted to. We are old-fashioned enough to believe that a Methodist preacher ought to pay his debts. We believe that the accounts of the Book Concern should be managed on the same sound business principles that prevail in other great publishing houses. We sincerely hope that our Conference will soon be able to show a clean record on this subject.

This Conference can not become a collecting agency for the debts of the Book Concern. The agents are clothed with all the authority necessary to make such collections. We, therefore, insist that they exercise their prerogative.

First—By restricting all credit of the members of this Conference to the lowest possible amount.

Second—That they prosecute all claims of over one year's standing against the members of this Conference immediately, by proper ecclesiastical methods, and by civil process if necessary.

REPORT ON FINANCE.

YOUR Committee beg leave to submit the following:

We fear that the solemn pledge made by our membership, when received into full connection in the Church, that "we will contribute according to our ability to the support of the Gospel and the various benevolent enterprises of the Church," is, by some, not fully understood as to its importance, by some soon forgotten, and by many others totally disregarded.

Yet we are glad to know that many are doing nobly; but with the few or many who thus liberally contribute, it at times becomes burdensome, and the question arises, how may we obviate this difficulty?

We think this might be accomplished by a united effort of the ministry and financial officers of the Church.

1. By examples of liberality to the Church, teaching them to contribute to all its benevolent enterprises.

2. By fully explaining to them the different collections, and the importance thereof, allowing each to stand upon its own merits.

3. By the preachers fully explaining to the candidates for full membership the obligation to support the Gospel and benevolent enterprises of the Church.

4. Let each preacher in charge preach at least one sermon during the year, to each of his congregations, upon the obligation to support the Gospel.

We would also recommend to the Stewards the importance of having each member of the society to feel under personal obligation to contribute something to the support of the Gospel.

5. Let this be done by an apportionment of salary among the members, or by subscription, endeavoring to obtain the assent of each member to the amount apportioned to him; and let this be done at the earliest possible period of the Conference year.

In societies where the envelope system is not in use, we recommend that a suitable number of collectors be appointed by the Board of Stewards, whose business it shall be to collect in accord with the arrangement made.

6. Not only let this matter include the Church members, but all who attend the services of the sanctuary; and even others should be invited to assist.

We would also recommend that this work be done quietly, but promptly—endeavoring to lead all to believe, and fully to realize, that it is a privilege, as well as an obligation, to give.

7. We furthermore recommend—wherever practicable—weekly payment, by the envelope system, of all the claims for pastoral support, upon the basis of the apportionment, or subscription.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

YOUR Committee on Temperance present the following report :

1. We recognize the suppression of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, to be used as a beverage, as the most important politico-moral question of the age in which we live.

2. We demand of the ensuing session of our General Assembly the re-submission of the question of constitutional prohibition, without any complications or alternative propositions, to the suffrages of the voters of Ohio.

3. We urge the General Assembly to provide by law for instruction upon alcohol and hygiene in our public schools.

4. We are unalterably opposed to the enactment of laws that propose, by license, taxation, or otherwise, to regulate the drink traffic; because they provide for its continuance, rather than removal, and afford no protection against its ravages.

5. We declare that it is our deliberate judgment that Methodists should not permit themselves to be controlled by party organizations that are managed in the interest of the liquor traffic.

6. We notice, with special pleasure and approval, the following timely statement made by the Board of Bishops of our Church, in their Quadrennial Address to our late General Conference: "In the great struggle for prohibition which has occurred in some of the Western States, the position of our people has been one of unyielding devotion to the principle of Constitutional Prohibition. While we may have lost a few members by the firm attitude of the Church, we have no doubt that our high position will be maintained in the future, and that the Church will continue to oppose all forms of intemperance until legal sanction of the evil shall be removed from the statute books of all our States."

7. We indorse the advanced position taken by the recent General Conference on this question, and place the Cincinnati Annual Conference upon the platform it adopted, where we will battle until Constitutional Prohibition is secured in Ohio, and in every State and Territory in the Union, and finally embodied in the Constitution of the United States.

8. We thankfully recognize and approve the great work carried on by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in all parts of the land; recommend the women of Methodism everywhere to become members thereof, and pledge ourselves to co-operate with them in every practicable manner.

9. We adopt the General Conference motto, viz.: "Voluntary total abstinence from all intoxicants as the true ground of personal temperance, and complete legal prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating drinks as the duty of civil government."

10. Your Committee having considered the propriety of employing an agent of the Conference Temperance Society, referred to it by vote of the Conference, respectfully recommend that the Rev. M. Dustin D. D., be appointed as such agent.

REPORT ON PARSONAGES.

WE record with gratitude to God, that the good work of parsonage building and remodeling has gone steadily forward during the year. At least four houses have been built, six remodeled, and several others improved and refurnished, in part, at least. One presiding elder's district in our bounds this year will report a parsonage in each pastoral charge, save one, though all of them are not in good condition.

We offer for adoption the following:

Resolved, 1. That this good work be pushed steadily forward until the supply is equal to the demand.

Resolved, 2. That all our parsonages should speedily be supplied with heavy furniture.

Resolved, 3. That, wherever practicable, our pastors and the Committee on Parsonages should beautify our preachers' homes by the planting of shrubbery, shade trees, fruit trees, and small fruits.

Resolved, 4. That in charges where there are no parsonages we recommend that the presiding elder, the pastor, and if need be, a committee of three or more active and liberal-minded laymen, to be appointed at the first quarterly conference, be a Committee on Ways and Means, to formulate some plan by which a sum of money may be accumulated as the basis of a building fund, and as far as possible to interest all the members and friends of the Church in the enterprise, and secure speedy results.

Resolved, 5. That all our pastors should exercise a careful oversight over all our parsonage property and see that it is kept in a neat and comfortable condition.

REPORT ON DIVORCE.

YOUR Committee beg leave to present for your consideration and adoption the following report:

Within the bounds of the Cincinnati Conference divorce suits were brought and decrees of separation granted as follows:

	SUITS.	DECREES.
Adams County.....	10.....	5
Brown ".....	25.....	12
Preble ".....	25.....	14
Highland ".....	26.....	14
Miami ".....	26.....	19
Warren ".....	30.....	13
Greene ".....	46.....	17
Champaign County.....	47.....	14
Clinton ".....	54.....	18
Clarke ".....	66.....	33
Montgomery ".....	176.....	56
Hamilton ".....	1,000.....	144
Total.....	1,531.....	359

Of these but 343 were sought on Scriptural grounds and but 62 were granted.

Ohio granted 873 divorces in 1865, and 1,965 in 1883. This is an increase of 233 per cent in 19 years. The population increased but 36 per cent, and the number of marriages 30 per cent during the same period. The ratio in the former year was 1 to 26; in the latter it was 1 to 16. In 1883 Ashtabula County gave a ratio of 1 to 4, and of 1 petition for divorce to about every 2 marriages. In 3 counties in the northern part of the State the ratio of divorces to marriages is, omitting decimals, 1 to 5. In 9 counties, mostly in the north and west, it is 1 to 7. In 43 counties scattered throughout the State, the fewest being in the south-east, it is 1 to 10. The evil increases every day. It is confined to no one locality and to no one population. Among the worst counties are Ashtabula, Jefferson, Darke, and Lucas. The best are found in all parts of the State and are often bounded by the worst.

New England granted 2,113 divorces in 1878. Connecticut, in 1849, granted 1 divorce to every 35 marriages. By 1878 this ratio had so increased that it was 1 divorce to 10 marriages for a period of fifteen years. Rhode Island, Maine, and New Hampshire gave a ratio of 1 to 10 in 1878. Chicago, Louisville, and 24 counties of Michigan furnish a ratio of 1 to 13. In two leading counties of Minnesota divorces are increasing 50 per cent faster than marriages. In St. Louis there are 200 divorces annually, and in Philadelphia the number rose from 101 in 1862 to 477 in 1882. In 29 counties of California the ratio is about 1 to 7. Statistics for States other than our own are difficult of access, but the foregoing will indicate the drift of the country. Competent authority states that the ratio of divorces to marriages has doubled within the last 30 years, while the present increase is even greater.

Among other forcible utterances made by the last General Conference were the following:

"The alarming frequency of divorce is a matter too well known to need the citation of any statistics in proof. Thousands are granted in this country every year without causing a ripple of public indignation or concerted protest. The records of our courts are largely filled with decrees annulling marriages, over which the ministers of the Church have declared 'Whom God hath joined together let no man put asunder.' If it were possible to aggregate the number of divorces granted in the United States during the last quarter of a century, it is believed that the parties and their families together would amount to a number of persons nearly or quite equal to the population of some of our commonwealths.

"The teachings of Scripture and the Discipline of the Methodist Communion on the subject of marriage are clear and undoubted. Jesus Christ, so early in his ministry as the Sermon on the Mount, and repeatedly thereafter, taught his followers in unmistakable terms the Divine law as to the sacredness of marriage.

"The Discipline of the Methodist Church teaches that marriage was 'instituted of God,' and is a 'holy estate;' that it is not to be entered into unadvisedly, 'but reverently, discreetly, and in the fear of God,' and that the union thus formed is not to be sundered by man for any reason not destructive of the relation itself.

"The dangers of the time require that these teachings of Christ and this doctrine of the Church should be expounded and enforced with unswerving fidelity. In the effort to correct the monstrous and widespread vice that threatens our homes and the entire social fabric no sect nor section should be known, but all citizens and all Churches should be invoked to aid in rescuing marriage and the family institution from degradation and destruction."

By order of the General Conference this explicit paragraph is incorporated into the New Discipline:

"No divorce shall be recognized as lawful by the Church except for adultery, and no minister shall solemnize marriage in any case where there is a divorced wife or husband living; but this rule shall not apply to the innocent party in a divorce for the cause of adultery; nor to divorced parties seeking to be reunited in marriage."

A Divorce Reform League, made up of men from all denominations, has been organized in our State which desires to unite all classes in the prosecution of its work. Its object is to promote an improvement in public sentiment, in the practice of the Churches, and in the legislation of the State, upon the subject of the family, marriage, and divorce. Its officers are :

President—Rt. Rev. G. T. Bedell, D. D.

Vice-presidents—Rev. Wm. E. Moore, D. D., Hon. J. M. Hoyt, LL. D., Prof. W. F. Whitlock, Rev. Isaac Crook, D. D., Rev. J. H. Bomberger, Hon. Columbus Delano, LL. D., Rev. Washington Gladden, D. D., Hon. J. B. Jones, Hon. M. M. Granger, LL. D., Rev. S. A. George, Bishop J. A. Shorter, Rev. Frank Russell.

Treasurer—Charles Parrott, Esq., Columbus, Ohio.

Secretary—Rev. Paul Sterling, Newark, Ohio.

The officers of the League constitute its Executive Committee.

In view of these facts we offer the following :

Resolved 1. That since all human law has its foundation and authority in divine law, we question the righteousness and protest against the action of our Legislatures and courts upon the subject of divorce, thereby bringing human law into antagonism with the divine command as interpreted by our Lord Jesus Christ.

Resolved, 2. That we rejoice in the formation of the Ohio Divorce Reform League, and do most earnestly entreat both ministers and members of our Church to co-operate with the organization by giving it their names and influence.

REPORT OF AUDITING COMMITTEE.

THE Committee appointed to audit the accounts of the Publishing Committee of the Cincinnati Conference, report as follows:

From as careful an examination as we could make, in the time at our disposal, of the statements of the Book Agents at Cincinnati, and the written statement of the Secretary of the Conference for last year, we find the accounts correct, and that the entire business was so judiciously managed that the late administration hold to the credit of this Conference $179.77, with $31.70 still due from members of the Conference on the Minutes of 1883.

CORRESPONDENCE WITH SUPERANNUATED MEMBERS.

THE following letter was addressed to Rev. Drs. Herr and Moody, and to Rev. S. F. Conrey, by direction of the Conference.

URBANA, O., September 11, 1884.

DEAR BROTHER:—The Cincinnati Conference at its late session appointed the undersigned a special Committee to convey their profound sympathy with you, as fellow-ministers and as former fellow-workers in the Lord's vineyard.

We bear a lively remembrance of your long years of arduous toil in the ministry of the Lord Jesus. We gratefully recall your burning zeal and your large success in the fields you have occupied. Our blessed, hallowed fellowship of toil and sacrifice and suffering, both in conferences and in active itinerant work, can never be forgotten.

As those of us who are advanced in years recall all this, we are cheered by your good example of labor and endurance in former years, and by your present abundant experience in your retirement from the active duties of the ministry of the comforting and sustaining grace of Christ.

Those more recently entering the itinerancy, and those who have wrought in it but few years, are also greatly impressed and inspired by the noble record you have made and by the golden eventide you are enjoying.

We rejoice in your past achievements. We are glad you are finishing your course with joy. We miss your familiar face and voice at our annual sessions.

We pray that your faith may not fail; that "He who hath begun a good work in you, will perform (finish) it, until the day of Jesus Christ;" and also and especially, that personally you may find the promise fulfilled, "at evening time it shall be light."

On behalf of the Conference and for ourselves, we are, dear brother, yours in the kingdom and patience of Jesus.

THOMAS H. PEARNE,
WM. YOUNG,
JNO. F. MARLAY.

DAYTON, September 16, 1884.

REV. DRS. PEARNE, YOUNG, AND MARLAY:

Dear Brethren—Your letter of the 11th inst. is just at hand, conveying to me the sentiments of the Conference in regard to my personal and ministerial life during the past fifty-six years. I am filled with profound gratitude to God for my conversion in 1827, for my call to the ministry and admission to the Conference in 1828, and for divine grace hitherto vouchsafed, by which I have been enabled to abide in the faith and love of Jesus until the present time. I fully appreciate and reciprocate the fellowship and Christian regard of the Conference, and, as ever, shall esteem it an honor to be associated with God's ministerial nobility, and share their sympathy, love, and prayers. My heart throbs with esteem and intense affection for the members of the Conference and the Church, and my ardent prayer is comprehended in the words of Moses: "The Lord your God hath multiplied you, and behold, ye are this day as the stars of heaven for multitude. The Lord God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as he hath promised you!"

Yours in Christ,

W. HERR.

REV. WILLIS M. BOYER.

REV. WILLIS M. BOYER was born in Olean, New York, June 1, 1836, and died in Manchester, Adams County, Ohio, January 14, 1884. When in youth, the family settled in Ripley, Ohio, where he spent his early manhood. He had the advantages of a good religious training. His parents were devout Christians and influential members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. His father was a class-leader of rare excellence.

Brother Boyer embraced religion, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, January, 1861, in Ripley, under the labors of Rev. J. S. Peregrine. While residing in Maysville, Ky., he was licensed to exhort, and afterward to preach.

On returning to Ripley in 1869, he took work under the presiding elder, Rev. S. Bennett, and was appointed to Laurel Circuit, with Rev. J. P. Porter, preacher-in-charge.

The next year he was admitted into the Cincinnati Conference on trial, and was returned to the same circuit. His appointment for the third year was desired by the charge, but he was appointed to West Union Circuit, where he remained three years; then to Feesburg, then to Williamsburg, and then to Manchester, at each charge remaining the full term of three years. So acceptable were his labors, that charges where he had served desired his return to them for a second term. He was admitted into full connection in 1872.

He was a godly man and a good preacher. His soul was in his work, and the Lord blessed his labors. In his fields of labor there are many living monuments of his faithfulness.

In 1866 he married Miss Mary J. Edmunds, of East Maysville, Kentucky. She and their four children are left to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and father.

His health had not been good for several years, but he continued to do full work until into the second quarter of his third year at Manchester. At the next session of Conference he took a superannuated relation. His family and friends at Manchester did all that affection could do to smooth his pathway to the tomb.

He often expressed a strong faith in Christ, and a joyous assurance of "a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." He cherished a strong attachment to his brethren of the Conference, and fellow-laborers in the Gospel.

He left his family but little in worldly goods, but a rich legacy of love, of character, and of a useful life.

REV. NIMROD McDONALD.

REV. NIMROD McDONALD died in Springfield, Ohio, January 15, 1884, in the sixty-ninth year of his age. His license as an exhorter was issued February 20, 1848, and in the following December he received license as a local preacher.

He was received on trial by the Cincinnati Conference in 1854, and admitted into full connection two years later. He was ordained a deacon at Cincinnati, October 1, 1854, by Bishop Levi Scott; and ordained an elder at Lebanon, September 12, 1858, by Bishop Edmund S. Janes.

His appointments were successively: Fairfield, New Carlisle, Merrittstown Mission, Agent Hillsboro College, North Lewisburg, Fletcher, Raysville, Lewisburg, Maineville, Martinsville, Bowersville, New Market, Winchester, Clarksville, Marathon, Amelia, and Laurel.

Since the session of 1874 he has held a superannuated relation to the Conference, and for several years past he has resided in Springfield, performing such ministerial labor as his broken health would allow.

Brother McDonald was industrious, and rendered faithful service for the Church in all of his appointments. His convictions were decided, and his denunciations of sin were always earnest. His sincerity was unquestioned, and he enjoyed in a remarkable degree the love and confidence of those who knew him. He was indeed a good man, "full of faith and of the Holy Ghost."

REV. DAVID KEMPER.

REV. DAVID KEMPER was born in Botetourt County, Virginia, July 8, 1807, and died in Lebanon, Ohio, March 24, 1884.

His youth was spent in working on a farm. He also taught school in early life. His father, Sanford Kemper, moved to Ohio in 1831, and settled in Bellefontaine, Logan County. Brother Kemper, then a young man of twenty-four, accompanied his parents and engaged in teaching school near Bellefontaine.

He was converted at a camp-meeting held near Fincastle, Va., August 30, 1825, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church on the 8th of the following month. He was licensed to exhort by Rev. James Watts, preacher-in-charge of Fincastle Circuit, September 29, 1831. This license was renewed by Rev. William H. Raper, at Bellefontaine, Ohio, in 1832. July, 1833, he received license as a local preacher. September 1, 1834, at Circleville, he entered the traveling connection and was appointed to Darby Circuit, Ohio Annual Conference. He was ordained deacon at Chillicothe, October 2, 1836, by Bishop Joshua Soule. He was ordained elder at Columbus, September 30, 1838, by Bishop Beverly Waugh.

The following appointments were served by him from 1834 to 1869: Darby, Sidney, Coal River Mission, W. Va., Barboursville, Guyandotte, Charleston, Franklin, New Haven, Germantown, Union, Troy, Urbana Station, Chillicothe District, Franklin again, Eaton, Mechanicsburg, Goshen, Clarksville, Miami, Maineville, Williamsburg, Madisonville, and Bethany.

August 30, 1869, the forty-fourth anniversary of his conversion, and also the time that marked the completion of thirty-five years of active and laborious work in the itinerancy, he took a superannuated relation to the Conference and removed to Lebanon, where he continued to reside until his death. During the conference year of 1871-72 he supplied the Raysville and Merrittstown charge.

He was married to Miss Sarah A. Gallaher, of Red Lion, Ohio, April 5, 1842. She departed this life February 6, 1883.

Brother Kemper was not only a Methodist in name, but also one in all the habits of his life. He kept a strict account of all his business transactions, and every important private or public event was noted in his journal. During the last thirty years of his life, the anniversary of his spiritual birth never took place without he made a written and a grateful acknowledgment of the fact. No other event of his life was so important in his estimation as the conversion of his soul.

Brother Kemper did heroic service in the itinerancy. The years spent in West Virginia were particularly full of arduous toil. Danger, too, he braved, for he often had to ford the rushing mountain torrents when the water was freezing cold, and sometimes his horse had to swim from shore to shore. One of his circuits, Guyandotte, was composed of fifty-two appointments.

He was a plain and a practical preacher of the Gospel. His modesty bordered on timidity, yet he had the courage of his convictions. Though he was "superannuated," he was not superannuated. He was active in Christian work to the very last. He was a thorough Sunday-school teacher, and a faithful class-leader. He was devoted to the Church in which he was converted. He loved her doctrines, her usages, and her worship. For her upbuilding he gave the strength of his youth and the wisdom of his riper years. He was requested one year ago to preach a semi-centennial sermon at this session of our Conference. Instead of hearing the sermon we hold this memorial service. One of God's ripest saints and one of his most loving and lovable children has been called home.

During the last six months of his life he seemed to be ripening for the skies. His prayers were noted for their peculiar fervency and unction, and his testimonies spoke out the peace and the joy of his heart. He often said, in the social meetings at Lebanon, that though his entire religious experience had been full of sweetness, he never enjoyed religion so much in all his life before. His life had become all sunshine in the Lord. His cup of happiness was full when he witnessed the conversion of his two grandsons, during the late revival enjoyed by the Church at Lebanon.

Three months before his death he was stricken with paralysis. Apprehension was at once awakened as to the final result. We are interested in knowing how he bore up under this and the other afflictions which followed. One or two sentences from his lips will tell the story.

Saturday afternoon, January 5th, his pastor visited him. On leaving, he said: "Brother Kemper, have you a message for our general class-meeting to-morrow morning?" "Tell the brethren," said he, "to remember me in prayer. Spiritually I am comfortable; grace sustains me, and all is peace." Sunday, March 16th, he was at all the Church services—general class in the morning, preaching, both morning and evening, and the Sunday-school in the afternoon. He pronounced the benediction at the close of the evening service. He was in a rapturous frame of mind all the day. It was his last Sunday in the earthly sanctuary. The following day he was not at all well, and on Tuesday he was quite ill. Pleuro-pneumonia had set in, and this, in connection with a complication of other diseases, brought him at once to the verge of the grave. His sufferings were intense, but never did a murmur fall from his lips. He was filled with the patience of the blessed Master. Friday following, he said to his pastor: "They are making a strong battle to keep me here. I do not know whether they will succeed or not, but one thing I do know, if they fail, I go to Jesus." He then repeated the words, "To live is Christ, and to die is gain." His strength now rapidly failed him, and from this time on he was for the most part unconscious. Monday afternoon his spirit returned to the God who gave it. Thus lived and died the pure and the true David Kemper, whose memory is "as ointment poured forth."

D. C. VANCE.

REV. CHARLES FERGUSON.

REV. CHARLES FERGUSON was born in Loudon County, Virginia, July 10, 1817. While yet a boy he came with his widowed mother to this State, and finally the family settled in Watertown, some twelve miles from Marietta, Ohio. Here his youth and early manhood were spent. Reverence for God and the worship of God were unknown in the family circle, and hence his unrestrained, buoyant spirit had full sweep and indulgence in the gayety and pleasures of society. Before the maturity of his manhood, impelled by curiosity, he attended a camp-meeting not far from his home, and while listening to the first sermon, his soul was penetrated with two great truths—the existence of God, and his own sinfulness. Such was the agony of his soul on account of sin that, with his Bible, for six weeks, day and night, he sought and prayed for salvation. At length light began to dawn upon his mind, and recognizing Jesus as an all-sufficient Savior, and venturing upon him, he felt the almighty, uplifting, saving power, the Holy Spirit witnessing his adoption, and heaven and earth uniting in the loud acclaim of praise and glory to God. Immediately after his conversion he joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, under the pastorate of the Rev. W. P. Strickland, Marietta Circuit, Ohio. With quenchless zeal for the salvation of his fellow-men, he soon felt a divine call to enter the Christian ministry. But, deeply conscious of his lack of literary and Biblical culture, he hesitated to obey immediately the divine behest, yet holding himself in readiness, when the way opened, to respond to the divine call. In the meantime he gave himself to study, under the direction of Rev. Mighill Dustin, by whom he was licensed to exhort, and also, through whom and others, in due time, he was made a local and then a traveling preacher. At length Providence opened the way, September, 1841, for more active service, by allowing a vacancy on French Grant Circuit, Lawrence County, Ohio, which, associated with Rev. A. Murphy, he supplied, by the authority of the presiding elder. The great Head of the Church signaled his approval of the act by the accomplishment of two important events—the conversion of Brother Ferguson's mother, and a revival, in which eleven hundred souls were converted. The first was the conversion of his mother. In the early part of the year he became so intensely concerned for her salvation that day and night he carried her case in prayer to God. One night, while occupying the same room with his presiding elder, he became so agitated that he could not rest, and rising from bed in an agony of prayer, he pleaded with God for the salvation of his mother. The presiding elder awoke, and hearing his distressed utterances, he asked, "Why, Ferguson, what is the matter?" The agonized pleader answered, "O, my mother, my unconverted mother; I can not rest until she is saved." And there, on the naked floor, he "wrestled in prayer with the angel of the covenant," until toward the break of day a sense of relief, comfort, and joy pervaded his soul, when he resumed his place in bed, satisfied that God had heard his prayer, and his mother was saved. Thank God, some days thereafter he received intelligence from home, miles away from his field of labor, that the same night and hour in which he was engaged in prayer his mother was graciously saved. The second was the conversion and admittance into the Church of eleven hundred souls.

The year was one of glorious triumph, and clearly designated and confirmed his life-work. Accordingly he was recommended and received on trial into the traveling connection, by the Ohio Conference, at Hamilton, in 1842. The early years of his ministry were spent on fields of labor in West Virginia.

Brother Ferguson was admitted into full connection with the Conference and ordained deacon in 1844, and the same year he was united in marriage to Miss Martha, daughter of the Rev. Samuel Robbins, pastor of the Congregational Church at Marietta, Ohio.

For fifteen years Mrs. Ferguson consecrated herself in faithful labor to promote the interests of the Church, when the Master called, in 1859, and she sweetly fell asleep in Jesus. Brother Ferguson's first regular appointment in Ohio was Jackson Circuit, in 1847, and thence onward, with the episode of agent for Springfield Female College. in 1853, he pursued uninterruptedly the pastoral work for twenty-eight years, during which period he was married, October 23, 1860, to Mrs. Anderson, his now bereaved widow. Brother Ferguson's line of appointments were first-class, embracing charges in Cincinnati, Lebanon, Springfield, Dayton, Hamilton, Urbana, Waynesville, Franklin, and Wilmington, when, in the year 1881, he was superannuated, his health having so failed as to compel him to ask for this relation, which he sustained up to the time of his departure, June 4, 1884, aged sixty-seven years.

His illness was comparatively brief, at times exceedingly painful, but borne patiently and with a calm resignation. Owing to the peculiarity of his disease, he could not indulge in much conversation, but full assurance was given of peace, joy, hope of eternal life through Jesus, and that his mind was absorbed in the contemplation of the shining shore beyond, and finally he passed away so gently and softly, that the wife of his heart, watching at his side, failed to perceive the change until some moments after it occurred.

He was an honest, open-hearted, pure-minded man, aiming with intense purpose to be useful in his day and generation. He possessed a large share of common sense and solid Christian experience; and with an aptitude to acquire knowledge by extensive reading, he was richly furnished with truth and facts essential to success in the great work in which he was engaged. He was deeply imbued with the spirit of his Master and the grandeur of his mission. He labored with great assiduity for the salvation of his hearers, as though he wanted to carry the sinner in his arms to the fountain filled with the cleansing blood. While Brother Ferguson was a fearless, conscientious, eloquent, and successful advocate of all moral reforms, especially the observance of the Sabbath and the prohibition of the liquor traffic, he was emphatically a SOUL-SAVER. In view of the robust constitution of Brother Ferguson, perhaps his excessive mental and physical labor may have shortened his days; and yet, be that as it may, we thank God for his noble, pure, and eminently useful life, and greet him,

"Servant of God, well done,
Thy glorious warfare 's past;
The battle 's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crown'd at last.

Redeem'd from earth and pain,
Ah! when shall we ascend,
And all in Jesus' presence reign
With our translated friend?"

The funeral services, by request of the family, were conducted by Dr. Herr, at Grace Church, Dayton. A number of the clergy from abroad were present, and Revs. Kugler, Collett, Dustin, Rust, Gad-dis, Irvin, Deem, Weeks, Burdsall, and Reed participated in the exercises. Bishop Walden, Drs. Pearne, Clayton, and VanCleve made brief, appropriate remarks, and after the memoir, by Rev. Dr. Herr, the remains were deposited in Woodland Cemetery, Dayton, Ohio.

REV. ENNIS WALTER HETZLER.

REV. ENNIS WALTER HETZLER was born May 29, 1858; died near Madisonville, Ohio, March 9, 1884. At the age of sixteen years he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at Armstrong's Chapel. He became at once an active worker, taking a class in the Sunday-school, and labored effectively as steward and class-leader. He was licensed as an exhorter before he commenced his college life, and at the end of his first year at Delaware was made a local preacher. He completed the university course with the class of 1882, and the following Autumn entered the Cincinnati Conference, serving his first year with Rev. J. L. Gregg, on Winchester charge. The joint ministry was greatly blessed in the conversion of souls. His next charge was Pendleton Church, Cincinnati. His labors, devotion, usefulness, and promise of success, his self-sacrifice while at this point are the sad treasures of many hearts. He was humble for himself, but bold for the cause of truth; modest and retiring, but an unfearing champion of every good cause; of gentle, fervent piety, but of great firmness for God and truth. To such a spirit was joined a well-disciplined mind, well stored by reading and study, analytic in its perceptions, and possessing an equal power of generalization. But most impressive of all, involving and permeating all, was the profoundness of his inner life, the depth and culture of soul.

The spirit of our young brother will best appear in the great life purpose which he formed. Some weeks before his death Dr. Thoburn published a call in the Advocate for two young men to open a mission work at Singapore. Both Brother Hetzler and the writer were deeply impressed by the call. When we met we communed closely with each other and with God, and parted, leaving the matter under consideration and prayer for divine guidance. Correspondence was opened for friendly and prayerful counsel, and for further information, a letter was written to Prof. Nelson, of Delaware. Shortly after the replies were received his attack of typhoid fever set in. On the second night of his illness I watched with him, and, being unable to sleep, he arose, and we two sat by the fire and talked about Singapore. Turning to me he said, "Brother, I want you to write to Prof. Nelson to-morrow that I am willing to go. I have determined to put myself in the hands of the missionary board, with a statement of my general health, and then, if they send me, it is the will of the Lord." The news of his sudden death reached me in Cincinnati. Finding a telegraph office, I sent this message :

"To Prof. E. T. Nelson, Delaware, O. :

"Some days ago Brother E. W. Hetzler desired me to write for him that he would accept the call to Singapore. He has since then been called to heaven."

Thus our brother asked for labor, God gave him rest; asked for sacrifice, God gave him reward; asked for work involving association with the degraded and depraved, God gave him the companionship of angels and the fellowship of the spirits of just men made perfect; he asked for Singapore, an unopened mission field on the far coast of Asia, for the intricacies of the Malay language, and God gave him heaven and the song of the redeemed, and blessed be the name of the Lord. Near the hour of the Sabbath morning service, he was called to worship in the better sanctuary.

The funeral services were held in the church at Madisonville, where he had been a Sunday-school scholar, and where he was converted. After prayer by Rev. B. F. Dimmick, and the reading of the Scriptures by Revs. F. G. Mitchell and G. H. Dart, the funeral sermon was preached by Dr. D. J. Starr, presiding elder. Following the discourse, a biographical sketch was read by Rev. C. W. Barnes. A telegram of sympathy for the parents from the Ohio Wesleyan University, sent by President Payne, and speaking of Rev. E. W. Hetzler as one of the most worthy young men ever graduated from that University, was read by Rev. J. J. McCabe. Resolutions by the Madisonville Sunday-school, by the College Society at Delaware, were read. A series of appreciative resolutions had been passed by the official board of the Pendleton Church. An address to the family was made by Pastor Clayton; an address to the Church was made by Dr. J. H. Bayliss; an address on behalf of the ministers of the Conference was made by Dr. I. W. Joyce. Rev. G. M. Hammell and M. LeSourd, who had been selected by the young ministers as their representatives, spoke of the sweet and ennobling fellowship they had enjoyed with the deceased.

MRS. SARAH A. ROUTLEDGE.

SARAH ARCHER ROUTLEDGE was born in Carlisle, England, February 28, 1818. Her parents, William and Mary Archer, were Wesleyan Methodists in that country, and emigrated to this when the subject of this sketch was only six years of age, and settled in Millbury, Mass., March, 1824. Here the Methodists were few, and were much persecuted. Her father being a local preacher and active in his services for the Church, the opposition to Methodism seemed to focalize upon him and his family. It was under such influences Sister Routledge was educated, and the sterling qualities that became so conspicuous and so much a blessing to the Church were fostered and matured. Her mother was a member of Mr. Wesley's class, and imbibed her love for the Church he founded from his own lips. It is said of Sister Routledge's father that when holding family worship he would often particularize and place his hand upon the head of each child successively, implore suitable blessings upon each, and almost, like Jacob, forecast the future. Thus to the service of the Church Sister Routledge was consecrated.

When but twelve years old she became savingly acquainted with the Lord Jesus Christ, and an active member of the Church. When a maiden of only seventeen she married Rev. Wm. Routledge, then a local preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and who afterwards became a member of the traveling connection in the Cincinnati Annual Conference, and died in 1874. She was the mother of six children, four of whom, daughters, died in infancy, leaving two sons to mourn the death of as good parents as any are ever blessed with.

Sister Routledge was a woman of pure character, strong faith, and a witness to the cleansing power of the atonement. She was a great help to her husband, and in his pastoral visitations bore a full part, to the great satisfaction and profit of the people. For several years before her death she was very feeble, and became almost blind, yet an interview with her always stimulated the faith and religious purposes of those who were so favored. She held a warm place in the hearts of the Church of Goshen, where she lived, and received many kindnesses at their hands.

Last Autumn she went to Memphis, Tenn., the home of her son, to spend the Winter, but she had not been there very long until her feeble strength gave way, and she calmly sank into the embrace of death, on the 12th day of November, 1883. Her last words were in harmony with her life. She said, "Jesus lighteth my pathway and maketh it bright; precious Savior, receive my spirit." Her body was brought to Milford, O., and interred by the side of her husband, Brothers Watson and Dart officiating at the funeral. A good and pure woman has gone from us to the "general assembly and Church of the first born in heaven."

L. F. VAN CLEVE.

MRS. JENNIE FILLMORE VANCE.

THE earthly life of Mrs. Vance began in Cincinnati, in the Christian home of her parents, E. Hartson and Mary H. Fillmore, on the fourth day of December, in 1849. After thirty-four years and five days it ended, on Sabbath afternoon of the ninth day of the same month, in 1883.

Jennie's parents were Christians, and accordingly Jennie was consecrated to God by baptism in her infancy, by the Rev. J. A. Bruner. Her life was like that of other children in Cincinnati. She attended the public schools, and in her eighteenth year she was graduated at Woodward High School. Then for three years she taught in the Ninth District, and during all this time she was also a regular and successful teacher in the Pearl Street Sunday-school, and afterwards in the Sabbath-school of Wesley. As she became fitted for a wider sphere it opened to her. Promotion comes in the line of duty. On the ninth day of August, 1870, Jennie Fillmore became the wife of the Rev. David C. Vance, of the Cincinnati Conference. Mrs. Vance at once brought all her experience and skill and influence to bear in helping her husband in his work. She taught in the Sunday-school, worked in the Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies, visited the sick, counseled the erring, attended the means of grace, nursed and taught her three children, and took care of her house. Her health seemed good, her faith was strong. She had skill, and used it to lead souls out from the darkness of doubt into the light of faith. In her religious experience she was ever calm, buoyant, and at times joyful. Mary had died at Oxford, and Eva was sick unto death, in the parsonage at Lebanon. Twenty-seven days and nights the mother waited and prayed and watched, and then little Eva's body was laid beside that of her sister Mary, in the Urbana Cemetery. The mother's health went out with the life of her child. She spent three months last Summer near Urbana, with her relatives, for the benefit of salubrious air. Nothing better, on the 13th day of last September, she came back to her childhood's home in Cincinnati for care and treatment, and after patient waiting, on the bright Sabbath afternoon of December 9th, she passed away.

In looking back on this Christian childhood and womanhood, and thirteen years of helpful wifehood, what do we see as its results? There lies the family Bible, rich in gold, richer by far in its teachings—that was a gift from Pearl Street, the first Sabbath-school in which she taught. A beautiful keepsake now left to her husband. Here is a beautiful Hymnal—left to Earl—that was a gift from her Sabbath-school class at York Street Church. Here is a magnificent floral urn from the Church at Lebanon, and here the floral anchor and cross from loving hearts at Madisonville, and here a pillow of flowers from a family friend in Cincinnati. And here are a house full of weeping friends from all the Churches. All these testify that character has intrinsic value, and that it is worth while to be a faithful Christian. But these are not all we have left to show the value of religion. We go with her husband to her sick chamber, and stand by while he asks for us, "Jennie, is religion worth any thing to you now?" We shall take the answer from her own lips.

On Friday, August 24th, her symptoms had forced upon her the conviction that she was soon to be taken away from her husband and little boy and aged parents and only brother, and speaking under this conviction, she said: "It seemed to me things looked the darkest to me they ever had, and I was ready to give up; but I went to my 'Stronghold.'" Four days after, referring to this, she said: "After such a gloomy Friday—until I had been quieted by prayer—what do you think I opened to in the Bible but a whole page full of 'praise the Lords?'" At a time when Mrs. Vance was very weak (September 13th), when her husband was about to leave for Lebanon, where he was to preach the following Sabbath, she said: "Bear my greetings to the friends and brethren at Lebanon. O, what a joy it would be for me to walk at your side into the church at Lebanon once again!"

Monday, September 24th, she said to her husband regarding his ministerial duties at Lebanon: "If you come and stay with me Mondays, Tuesdays, and Fridays, I shall be perfectly satisfied. It is yours to go and work, it is mine to lie here and suffer. When I contrast my condition with that of many others, it seems that it ought to be an easy thing for me to be sick, I have so many kind and devoted friends."

Monday, October 1st: "It seems to me I must get well; I have so much to live for. But when I think how long I have been sick, and so little done in favor of health and strength, I sometimes think I shall not recover. But my trust is in God. I do not know what I would do if I did not trust in him."

Friday, October 5th: "If I could only get well. But every thing in such cases as mine is uncertain. If I get well it will take a full year to recover entirely."

Tuesday, November 6th: "I am so feverish and weak that I fear I am not always in a prayerful frame of mind. I do not know how I would do without religion now. Trusting in Jesus makes me feel very comfortable and easy."

Monday, November 12th, she said to her husband, "Bring my Bible next Friday, when you come down again. I hope that my eyes will not hurt me so much that I can not read it." "Shall I bring any other article?" "No, I suppose I have every thing here necessary for my comfort until I die." Then bursting into tears, she said, "Last night I gave up pretty much all hope of ever getting well again, and yet I must say that I never felt such a desire to live as now. Earl needs me so very much. Eva and Mary are safe in heaven, but Earl is here on earth. And my poor old father—what will he do? He said when I was born that he wondered whether he would live long enough to see me grow up, and now can it be possible that he will live to see me buried? And dear mother, she says that I am the strongest tie that binds her to this world. But out of the clouds and out of the darkness there seems to come a voice saying to me, 'Have faith in God.'"

Tuesday, November 20th "For me to get well now seems hardly possible. You know how a child will go to a mother with every thing. I went to mother the other day, and told her all about my arrangements. It is hard for children who lose their mothers when quite young to recollect much about them. They must grow up before they can fully appreciate a mother. Perhaps it is well, for the time comes soon enough for them to take up the burdens of life. If I am to go, it is well that Mary and Eva are in heaven, and that I leave only one, dear Earl, behind. I have been satisfied with our life. We have had good places to live in, and so many dear good friends. I can never forget them for their kindness when our children were sick."

Friday, November 23d: "I had such a wonderful experience last Wednesday night. It seemed that I must either talk or sing or shout all night long. My fever is gone, my breathing is now natural and easy. God is so good that I must believe that he is going to raise me up again. I am not trusting my case now so much in the hands of my doctor as I am trusting it in the hands of God." Her last words to her husband, when he took leave of her on Friday before she died, were, "My cough is so bad that I am some weaker to-day, but it will be all right."

Sabbath, about noon, she was taken alarmingly worse. Her breathing became rapid and labored. Feeling that her end was drawing near, she said, "Send for David; there is no time to lose." Then turning to her mother, she said, "Mother, it is all right." What meaning in these, her last words, so spoken and at such a time. They were the text from which Bishop Wiley pronounced a most effective and comforting funeral discourse to the large congregation in Wesley Church, whence her remains were taken to Urbana for burial. Mrs. Vance had made a public confession of Christ, under the ministry of Rev. Thos. Collett, when she was eleven years old, and having been a dutiful daughter, an affectionate sister, a loving and helpful wife, a devoted mother, a constant friend, and a consistent Christian, she has gone to her reward.

D. J. STARR.

MRS. ROMAIN R. COWDEN.

MRS. ROMAIN RATHBURN COWDEN was born at Jackson, Ohio, May 9, 1827. Her father was a physician who died many years ago; her stepfather, nearly ninety, her mother, almost eighty, two sisters and a brother, and three half-sisters are still living. Soon after the death of her father, she went as a young girl to live at her grandfather's, when her grandmother being ill or infirm, she was installed as chief housekeeper, a position which she retained until her marriage. She was converted at the age of 14, and united at once with the Methodist Church, in which she lived an exemplary and faithful Christian until called to her reward. Several years after her conversion she was taken ill, and all thought she would die, even her physician had given up all hope of her recovery. Aware of her critical condition she carried her case to God in prayer, and was greatly blessed, and began to shout and praise God, whereat a reaction set in, which resulted in a complete recovery and restoration to health. Miss Rathburn was married to Rev. T. S. Cowden, of the Cincinnati Conference, May 28, 1851. For thirty-one years as a pastor's wife, and for nearly two years as the wife of a presiding elder, she went in and out before the Churches on eighteen different charges, carrying sunshine, inspiring confidence, and winning the hearts of the people wherever she went. For the greater part of her life she was an efficient Sunday-school teacher. She sang well, she prayed well, and was a most excellent helper in revival meetings. She was a safe guide of inquiring souls, and never happier than when pointing some penitent to Jesus. She was also an active worker in the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. It was during her husband's pastorate at Hillsboro that the woman's temperance crusade took its rise. Mrs. Cowden was one of a half-dozen women to whom that movement owed its origin, and, according to the testimony of all concerned, bore a very important part. Concerning her, Mrs. Eliza J. Thompson, of Hillsboro, writes: "Mrs. Cowden was called upon to start the first hymn of the crusade, commencing, 'Give to the winds thy fears.' She was a loyal 'crusader' in every sense of the word, was always faithful to the calls of those trying times, yet gave all diligence to her home and family without for once forgetting the sacred obligations to the Church she loved so well. At every meeting in the church, on the street, or in the saloon, her voice was a signal for fresh courage." She was the loving center of her beautiful home, about whom all family affairs harmoniously revolved. Her children found in their mother a cheerful companion and trusted adviser. The heart of her husband safely trusted in her. She had the profoundest interest in the preachers and their families, and as a presiding elder's wife she was greatly interested in every thing that concerned their welfare on the district. On removing to Dayton, she united with Raper charge, entered heartily into the life and work of the Church, and was most highly esteemed for her own and her work's sake by the members of this old and flourishing congregation. The writer was her pastor during the closing months of her life, and found in her a valued friend and faithful coworker in the Church of God. She attended the long series of revival meetings in Raper last Winter, and took an active part. What a power she was at the altar; how gentle her manner; how beautiful and consistent her example; how tender in sympathy; how fervent in prayer; what yearning after likeness to God in her testimonies! Little did we think that we should so soon lose that noble woman, whose price was above rubies. She was taken suddenly and unexpectedly ill with erysipelas; she grew rapidly worse, and after a short illness she passed quietly but surely to the eternal home, April 23, 1884. Her funeral service was held at the family residence, Rev. Dr. Herr, Revs. M. P. Gaddis, T. Collett, S. Weeks, M. Kugler, and her pastor taking part in the exercises. She was buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, a number of ministerial brethren and their families, with a large concourse of friends, from near and far, standing about her grave. Her husband and three daughters, who have the sympathy and prayers of the whole Church, survive her.

JOHN N. IRVIN.

MRS. EMMA DAVISSON PUMPHREY.

MRS. EMMA DAVISSON PUMPHREY was born in Harrison, Ohio, January 31, 1847; she was most happily united in marriage with Rev. John S. Pumphrey of the Cincinnati Conference, September 11, 1872. The first two years of their married life was spent in the service of Cumminsville and Groesbeck charge, the next three at Camden, three at Mingo, and three at Bethany; in the Fall of 1883 they removed to Lexington and Vienna charge; almost immediately following this change, she contracted a severe cold, which resisting all remedies rapidly developed into consumption, and after four months of prostration, marked with much suffering, on the morning of April 21, 1884, she peacefully fell asleep.

In person she was graceful and attractive; in character so pure, in spirit so amiable, that to know her well was to respect and love her. In the childhood home, and in all the fields where she toiled with her husband in his itinerant work she seemed to win all hearts to herself, but that which imparted the brightest luster to her natural amiability and gentleness was the bright sunshine of her Christian faith, and a steady loyalty and devotion to Christ and the work of his Church.

She drew her first breath in the atmosphere of a Christian home, and at its fireside was trained up in "the nurture and admonition of the Lord," so that when but fifteen years of age she was most happily converted to God, and became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

She was soon employed as a teacher in the Sabbath-school, and as organist in the home Church, and when called from these quiet scenes to be associated with her husband in his ministerial work, she modestly stood in her lot and place, and faithfully discharged the duties assigned.

She greatly loved the mission and work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and her womanly tact and skill were largely employed to advance its interests and enlarge its resources. Her memory will be lovingly cherished among the workers in that organization.

In her last sickness she was greatly sustained; on one occasion she said, "I never prayed so much in all my life that God would give me patience to suffer." Her prayer was answered, and she patiently endured to the end.

Just as she entered the valley her husband asked, "Is Jesus with you now?" In a whisper she answered, "O yes," and in a few minutes the pure spirit of a loving wife, a devoted mother, and a faithful Christian woman passed into the unseen spirit world, and to her rest in the Paradise of God.

In Mingo, a former charge served by Brother and Sister Pumphrey a memorial service was held. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, a memorial address was pronounced by the pastor, and a number of friends testified to her worth. There was also a written testimonial from Bethany charge, expressing the highest regard for her and deep sympathy for the bereaved family, which was signed by more than a hundred friends and forwarded to Bro. Pumphrey and his children; while other testimonials given and kind words spoken, testify of the love and esteem with which she was regarded wherever known.

The husband and four small children mourn their irreparable loss, but "they mourn not as they that have no hope."

Memorial services were held at New Vienna, where she died, and at Harrison.

Her mortal remains were tenderly borne and gently laid to rest in the quiet and beautiful cemetery of her childhood home, where they wait the resurrection of the just in the last day.

MRS. RUTH M. BARTON.

RUTH, eldest daughter of the late Rev. M. Marlay, D. D., was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, February 3, 1822. She was converted in early girlhood, while away from home attending school in Springfield. She was married April 4, 1843, to Rev. John Barton, at that time associated with Rev. John Miley in the pastorate of the Church in Chillicothe. Their subsequent fields of labor were Milford, New Richmond, Union, and Camden. In the last named charge, Mr. Barton's health, which had been gradually breaking, seemed to give way, and at the same time his mental faculties, under the stress of irregular and excessive habits of writing and reading, were so shattered that it became necessary to place him in the Southern Ohio Lunatic Asylum, at Dayton, where he was kindly cared for until death lifted the dark cloud. Of Mrs. Barton's life during this long period of painful suspense and anxiety, it is needless to speak, except to say that like a brave and true woman she fought the battle of life, keeping her faith in God, and maintaining a cheerful spirit under the darkest reverses of fortune. Of their three sons, one, William, died in hospital, from the effects of disease contracted in the army during the late war. The eldest, King Marlay, was for many years an honored and trusted book-keeper in the Methodist Depository, at Chicago. His death a few years ago was a blow from which the mother never recovered. The youngest son, Frank, alone survives. She died at her home in Chicago, October 1, 1883, and was buried in Oakdale Cemetery, Urbana.
